Atlanta International Rotary Convention

Jeff Boyles and Marion Goldwasser spoke to the club about their experience at the Rotary Convention in Atlanta.

Marion Goldwasser (Noon Club) and Jeff Boyles (Sunrise Club) spoke about what a grand turn out of Rotarians showed up at the Atlanta International Rotary Convention. "So many good people here" Jeff stated about attending the meeting. Jeff mentioned that Ashton Kutcher spoke about Human Trafficking and he walked away with a different impression of Ashton because of the passion and information he gave at the meeting. Marion enjoyed many of the exhibits and shared a number of organizations she visited on a hand out during the Noon Club meeting. A few were Pearls with Purpose, Stem Bunnies, and Navajo Jewelry. There were 90 booths and stretched 20 aisles across and 6 aisles long within the convention center. So many in fact, Jeff said they had street signs on each row so you could find your way around.

Pigeon Race Fundraiser

Jeff Boyles spoke to the Noon Club on the success of the Sunrise Club's Pigeon Race Fundraiser.

For $100 the purchaser has a pigeon in the race. The pigeons are released at the Charlotte Motor Speedway and fly 100 miles to Mount Airy. The first four pigeons back to the loft win the purchaser a prize. Proceeds from the race benefit the Backpack programs in two local school systems which qualifies as a RUSH event, which earned the club a $300 RUSH grant to help with the event.

The club set up a Facebook page and contacted the paper for publicity and local businesses also helped out. Foodlion, Mt. Airy Meat Center, The Dairy Center, Aunt Beas, and Interlam all supported the effort.

The event raised $6500 and the club added to that which allowed Rotary to give $4000 to each school. A fun and successful event and was accomplished by thinking outside the box.
